NORTH HALL GALLERY UNVEILS NEW SHOW TONIGHT!!!

The North Hall Gallery will open it's new three part exhibit tonight, with the Opening Reception being held from 5:00-7:00pm. All members of the Mass Art Community are invited to attend the Opening Reception and are encouraged to study the exhibits which will be up February 24 through March 25.

The three parts of the exhibition are:

Christy Park - Art Education faculty member here at Mass Art. Christy's photos identify and magnify sections of her delicately hand-tinted photographic landscapes.

Ros Barron - Mass Art alumna. Ros Barron's paintings constantly engage our eye by creating an ever-changing push and pull of the horizon line.

"The Drawing Show" - A selection of drawings by artists who have exhibited at the Drawing Center Gallery in New York City.

Park and Barron use the landscape as their subject matter and manipulate our perception in a subtle, formal manner. Both artists give us pleasing images while constantly questioning our relationship to nature.

The Drawing Center is a non-profit gallery which specializes in exhibiting experimental and adventurous approaches in drawing. These drawings are created by artists from across the country.

Gallery hours are Monday - Friday, 10:00am-6:00pm; and Saturday, 11:00am-5:00pm.

VISITING ARTIST PROGRAM BRINGS "THE MAGIC LANTERN SHOW" TONIGHT!

BLACK HISTORY MONTH LECTURE TOMORROW

The National theme for Black History Month this year is "Afro-Americans and the Constitution". In keeping with this theme, and in celebration of the month, Attorney David Hall, a law professor at Northeastern University School of Law will present a lecture titled,"The Contributions of African Americans to the American Legal Process". The talk will examine the Constitution, looking at the contradictions that existed within the original document with special attention given to the relationship between the rights and status of African Americans in the original Constitution. Attorney Hall will analyze the social consequenses of the decisions of the founders as they relate to the rights of African Americans, and the contribution the freedom struggle has made to the transformation of the Constitution. The lecture will take place Thursday, February 25, at 12:30pm, in the Trustee's Conference Room, Tower Building 11th Floor.Refreshments will be served. This extremely important and timely speech is sponsored by the Office of Minority Affairs.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH QUIZ

Who was the free-born inventor, mathematician, astronomer and essayist, called the "sable genius"? He made, completely of wood, the first clock wholly made in America. This clock kept accurate time for over 60 years. He is best known as the man who laid out the plans for the city of Washington, D.C.

ANSWER ON PG. 6

SUBMIT

Submit is a document currently funded by S.G.A. Submit is an unjuried forum for all students in the Mass Art Community. Submit 's intention is to provide an historical cross-cut of the Mass Art environment during 1988, from the best to the worst; no entries will be denied!!!!

Since funds are limited, only the first 100 submissions will be accepted. Students are welcome to add (at their own expense...sorry) to the publication such items as prints, floppy disks, etc. Submission of work will be accepted from now until April 1. No work will be accepted after the deadline!!!

Submissions should be brought to the drop off box on the door of Collins Building Room 353. Submissions will be removed nightly.

Drop off work "camera ready". Paintings and sculpture and other media should be photographed in black & white 8" x10". All writing should be in it's printing format; we will not typeset. Handwritten work is acceptable. All work will be photostatted. All original work and photographs will be returned after May 1st via mailboxes. Printing format is 8 1/2" x 11".

Announcement

Please note the following format for the Community Members Co-Sponsoring programs as recently approved by the Administrative Council.

1. College offices and staff Co-sponsoring off-campus groups, organizations or artists must first complete a form requesting use of the space desired. This form is available through the office of Public Space (Tower 105, x 355.) and requires approval of the Co-sponsor's Vice President.

2. Only the President may waive fees or authorize fee reductions for groups and individuals from outside the college. Without this waiver, fees are paid into the Public Space account, and at present are $10.00 for each classroom space used, and $300.00 for the Tower Auditorium for each usage period. In most cases, security and maintenence personnel, and student technicians are provided at no extra charge to the organization. Technical staff from outside the Office of Public Space must be approved by the Public Space Director.

3. A Co-Sponsor's representative must be appointed to serve as the liaison with the outside group. This person must be present at all meetings with College officials and personnel, and at all rehearsal and performances while the group is in residence on College property. A faculty member, staff member or administrative officer must be appointed to this position; students are not eligible to serve in this capacity.

The Office of Public Space will be happy to work with you to make your program a success.
